

When referring to Professional Learning Communities, I believe that Professional Learning Communities are an ongoing process for impacting student learning.

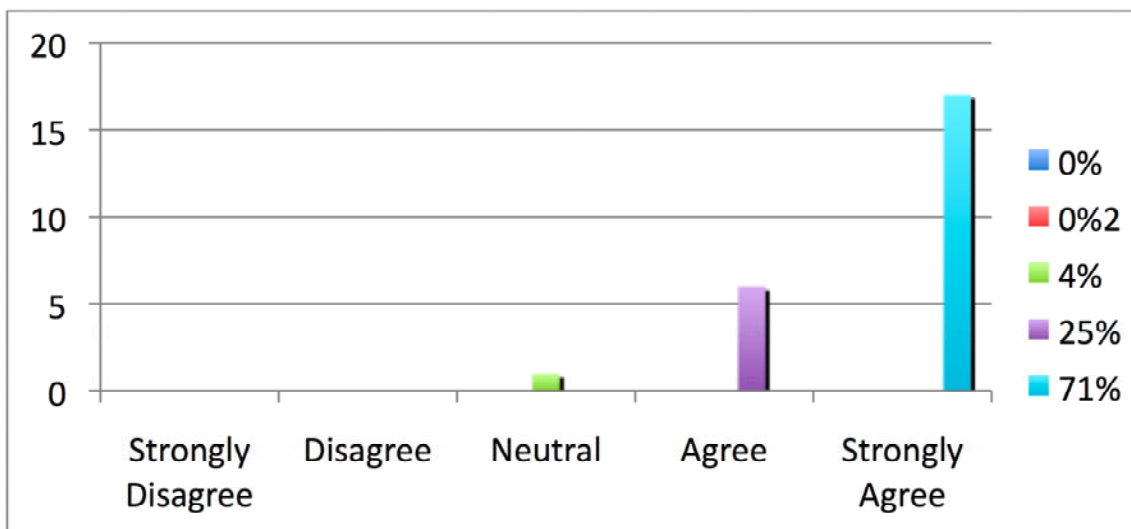

Professional Learning Communities provide me with support from my team to decide the order of the curriculum.

Our Professional Learning Community meetings are focused and discussions are centered around content area reform initiatives.

I feel comfortable collaborating new ideas with my Professional Learning Community.

I believe there is a significant benefit in student learning by participating in a Professional Learning Community.

